James had an outstanding warrant for failure to appear in court; Bean told James he recognized her. The officers took the driver and another passenger into custody and James allegedly jumped into the front seat and tried to drive away. McCollister attempted to pull her out of the car, and then allegedly attempted to use pepper spray, which didn't go off. Reynolds shot a Taser at James and McCollister then put his gun to her head, telling her to turn off the engine. She allegedly put the car in gear. McCollister has stated he felt himself falling out of the car and feared he would be dragged, so he fired one bullet, which killed James by entering at her hip and traveling up to her lower ribcage. The officers pulled James out, handcuffed her, and left her unattended while they secured a crime scene perimeter; they did not check her vital signs and Reynolds said he thought she was "faking" unconsciousness. | Extensive coverage in The Oregonian, Portland Tribune, etc. See Cleared Officer Tells His Side: 'I Thought I Was Gonna Die', The Oregonian, May 20, 2003 |

| Redincer | Steffen Wesley | 3/2/2003 | 28 | Unknown | Male | Craig Mendenhall, and Paul Park | Transient; general mental health unknown | Shooting; Witnesses say Redincer was attempting to hijack an idling truck around 11:40 a.m. on an industrial stretch of Southeast Stark Street between Second and Third avenues. Police chased him on foot before he turned and advanced on the officers with a weapon they thought was a knife and turned out to be scissors. They both fired their guns, leaving Redincer in critical condition. The officers had called for help from others carrying beanbag guns or Tasers, but said they did not have time to wait for arrival of back-up. | Man, 28, Shot by Police in Critical Condition, The Oregonian, March 4, 2003 |
| Sawtelle | Justin Lee | 12/13/2002 | 27 | Unknown | Male | Traffic Officer Craig Major | Unknown | Shooting (no hits); Sawtelle, in his SUV, was pursued by police after fleeing a traffic stop, and hit another car stopped at another traffic stop. Major fired at and hit Sawtelle's SUV as he tried to flee that scene; the SUV stopped seven blocks away because of a busted tire. Sawtelle was uninjured and taken into custody. The incident took place amidst rush hour traffic in the morning. | Traffic Stop Leads to Chase, Crash, Gunfire, The Oregonian, Dec. 14, 2002 |

| Stoneking | Russel | 10/26/2002 | 26 | Unknown | Male | Unknown | Unknown | Shooting (no hits); Police had been searching for Stoneking after he was stopped in a vehicle matching a description of a stolen car and scuffled with the officer before fleeing that scene. A hotel manager at the Hotel Vintage Plaza identified Stoneking two days later and called police. They called Stoneking's room at 1:40 am and asked him to surrender. He ran from the room and officers fired bean-bag rounds, which hit but did not stop him; they also fired live bullets. Stoneking climbed over a rail and fell to the lobby six floors below; he was taken to OHSU, unconscious and with multiple fractures. | Man Sought in Assault Falls from Hotel Balcony , The Oregonian, Oct. 27, 2002 |
| Gomez | Dustin Tyler | 10/18/2002 | 16 | Unknown | Male | Officer George Weseman Jr. | Unknown | Shooting; Weseman apparently attempted to handcuff Gomez on suspicion of trying to pass a fraudulent $500 check at Cash Connection at Southeast Stark Street and 199th Avenue; during this interaction, Gomez pulled out a pistol and fired at Weseman, shooting him once, not fatally, in the head. Weseman returned fire with about a dozen shots. Gomez was treated for shots in the chest, abdomen and pelvis. | Teen Indicted in Police Shooting , The Oregonian, Oct. 30, 2002 |

| Christian | Jeremy Joseph | 5/12/2002 | 20 | Unknown | Male | North Precinct Officer Chris Devlin | Unknown | Shooting: Christian was suspected of an armed robbery at North Lombard Street and Vancouver Avenue, including handcuffing the owner of a market to a counter and stealing cash and cigarettes just after the store closed. Devlin chased him and fired three shots, hitting Christian's cheek while Christian was fleeing. Christian sustained facial lacerations. | Officer Shoots Suspect in Store Robbery , The Oregonian, May 14, 2002 |
| Beck | Anthony Utah-Zona | 4/14/2002 | 29 | Unknown | Male | Officer Chris Kenagy | Unknown | Shooting death: Beck entered a home in Southeast and, when confronted by police at the front door, allegedly refused commands to drop what looked like a gun and a knife in each hand. Kenagy fired three times with a Colt AR-15 rifle from about 25 yards away, hitting Beck three times in the chest and abdomen. Beck was found with an air pistol; according to police, he had self-inflicted stab wounds, cocaine in his system, and had tried to kill himself. | Fatal Shooting is Ruled Justified , The Oregonian, April 25, 2002 |

| Hammick | Byron | 2/22/2002 | 26 | African American | Male | Officers Stephen Mosier (#1683) and Christopher Gilbert (#34017). | High on PCP and meth (coroner's report) | Shooting death; Officers responded to a call at Motel 6 on Powell and found Hammick apparently high on PCP and meth. Hammick allegedly was beating a toddler; officers shot and killed him, fearing for the child's life. Hammick was unarmed. | The Shooting in Room 222, The Oregonian, March 8, 2002; Clergy Criticize Police Shooting, The Oregonian, March 9, 2002 |
| Lochner | Rich | 2/21/2002 | 47 | Unknown | Male | Officer Robert Quick | Unknown | Shooting (no hits); Quick was patrolling the Old Town/Pearl neighborhood and ran Lochner's car plates (it is unclear why). The car had been reported as stolen (in fact, it had been stolen and returned to the owner, Lochner, and the dispatcher's system had not been corrected). Quick put on his lights to stop Lochner, leaned out of his car and ordered Lochner to put his hands up. Lochner says he did not hear any commands, grabbed his keys out of the ignition, and got out of the car. Quick said he thought Lochner was holding a gun, and thus shot out of fear for his safety, hitting a postal truck. | Man Cries Foul After Officer Fires Gun, The Oregonian, May 29, 2002 |

| Cromb | Daniel | 12/9/2001 | 23 | White | Male | Portland Reserve Officers Michael Glass and John Wood | Unknown | Shooting death; Officers responded to reports of an armed robbery of Village Inn Restaurant at Southeast 103rd Avenue and Stark Street. The cashier said a man wearing a dark coat with a hood had robbed the restaurant. They stopped Cromb on a bicycle and asked if they could pat him down; Cromb then fled and eventually pulled out what looked like a gun, at which point the officers both shot at him. Cromb died of a single gunshot wound; police found an inoperable pellet gun at his side. | Report Gives Account of Fatal Shooting , The Oregonian, Dec. 29, 2001 |
| Martin | Randolph Marion | 12/8/2001 | 41 | Unknown | Male | Carlos Pagan (#38061) and Homero Reynaga (#29551) (PCW - unconfirmed by Oregonian) | Unknown | Shooting; Officers responded to a report from Walgreen's at SE 39th Ave; the clerk said a man had threatened to get a gun and shoot employees when confronted for shoplifting. Officers followed a vehicle matching the description; the car did not stop right away until stopping at a dead end. Martin, the driver, allegedly drove toward and tried to run over the officers, at which point they fired several shots, hitting him in the hand. | Police Wound Man, 41, After Alleged Assault , The Oregonian, Dec. 10, 2001 |

| Waters | Tyrone | 9/17/2001 | 36 | African American | Male | Police commander Derrick Foxworth and Lt. Kevin Modica (only beanbags; officer who shot live rounds unknown) | Mentally ill | Shooting (no hits but beanbags); Waters had a history of mental illness and violent behavior; detectives had been looking for him after a report of violent threats. When confronted at a relative's home, he pulled what looked like a gun from a backpack. The police negotiated with him while calling for cover and a less-lethal bean-bag gun, with which they shot at and hit him, before a back up officer shot five live rounds (which missed). Walters was taken into custody on attempted aggravated murder charges. | When Race and Mental Illness Collide , The Oregonian, June 2, 2002 |
| Browne | Bruce | 7/11/2001 | 40 | African American | Male | Northeast Precinct Officer Kenneth Duilio | Unknown | Shooting; Browne apparently had just wrestled a gun away from a teen-aged assailant in the parking lot of the Fast Trip gas station in Northeast Portland, where he had stopped to buy cigarettes, when Duilio arrived and shot him in the upper right arm and upper right thigh because police had received reports of an armed man at the scene. | Officer Shoots a Man Left Holding Gun After Brawl , The Oregonian, July 13, 2001 |

| Poot | Jos Santos Victor Mejia | 4/1/2001 | 29 | Mayan-Mexican | Male | Officer Christopher A. Davis (beanbag rounds), Officer Jeffrey M. Bell (live fire). | Epilepsy; manic-depressive state | Shooting death; Poot was taken into custody March 30 after allegedly attempting to strike a Tri-Met driver; after released from jail, he was found sobbing outside the jail and lay down in front of a patrol car. He was taken to a triage center, then referred to BHC-Pacific Gateway Hospital, a psychiatric hospital in SE Portland with apparently inadequate staffing and other safety measures; records show he was in a manic-depressive state and the hospital tried to medicate him. Police were called to the hospital when Mejia allegedly was threatening others with pencils; he was placed in a seclusion room. Police were called again when Mejia apparently broke out of the room and had allegedly knocked a staff member to the floor. Police tried to pepper spray him before Davis fired three non-lethal beanbag rounds at Mejia with no effect. Bell then fired a handgun, striking Mejia in the head and chest. | Police Exonerated in Shooting, The Oregonian, April 27, 2001 |
